

Download Golden Age Of The Moor Journal Of African Civilizations

'For the People': a 4 Part interview with anthropologist and historian, Dr. Ivan Van Sertima of Rutgers University. The interview was conducted in 1995 by the late Listervelt Middleton the global african community reference notes a preliminary global african presence book list compiled and posted by runoko rashidi dedicated to dr. The Moors were the medieval Muslim inhabitants of al-Andalus (the Iberian Peninsula including present day Spain and Portugal) as well as the Maghreb and western Africa, whose culture is often called Moorish. Afrocentrism has its origins in the work of African and African diaspora intellectuals in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, following social changes in the United States and Africa due both to the end of slavery and the decline of colonialism., Golden Age Of The Moor Journal Of African Civilizations.

Other Files :