

Download School Social Work Practice Policy And Research

A school social worker provides counseling and psycho-social services to children and adolescents in schools at both micro and macro levels. Social workers work as mental health experts, leaders of social and emotional development within the school community, family-school liaisons, and program development experts., School Social Work Practice Policy And Research.

Other Files :